To Our Military Veterans,

Greetings, and on behalf of all Keolis Transit America employees and a grateful nation, we thank you for your sacrifice and service to our country. Your contribution to our safety and security can never be repaid.

As you transition to civilian life, we understand that you may be facing many difficult choices regarding your future. Keolis Transit America would like to extend a grateful hand to all our men and women who have faithfully served in our armed forces by inviting you to consider joining our team.

Keolis is a leading public transit operator around the world. We're established in 13 countries on four continents, with more than 52,000 employees and over $6.7 billion in annual revenue. In the United States, Keolis provides a full spectrum of transportation services including operation of fixed-route transportation systems, paratransit and airport shuttle operations, fleet management and maintenance, and logistics and routing services. As a company, we focus on customer service, safety, quality and innovation, and a commitment to teamwork and professional development.

At Keolis, we see the training and skills you acquired in the military to be an extremely valuable resource. Your military occupational training and experience may even be directly transferrable into a related civilian occupation with Keolis. Vehicle operator, vehicle maintenance technician, facility maintenance and administrative positions, are just a few of the many job categories we offer. For vehicle operator positions, we offer paid training at all Keolis operations nationwide.

We invite you to take a moment to review all current Keolis career opportunities. Please apply online for any jobs that you feel are a close fit for your skills, abilities and interests. By using our Veteran's Career Portal, your application will be given the highest consideration by our hiring managers.

We encourage you to contact us, and allow us the honor of your consideration.

Once again, we sincerely thank you for your service to our country. We hope you will consider applying for a position with Keolis Transit America.

Best Regards,
